Palm Coast Bank Robbed

Flagler County Sheriff's deputies are looking for the man who robbed the Hancock Bank in the Palm Harbor Shopping Center in Palm Coast shortly before 3 p.m. today.

Witnesses told deputies the man entered the bank, walked up to the teller station and displayed what appeared to be a silver, small caliber handgun. He demanded money and after the teller complied, he fled in a white Oldsmobile Alero. The vehicle was last seen headed out of the shopping center parking lot toward Florida Park Drive.

The robber is described as a white male wearing a long sleeve shirt, blue jeans, white sneakers, white hat and mirrored sunglasses. Witnesses said he was wearing a piece of dark clothing over his face.

The FBI is responding to the scene.

Anyone with information on the incident is asked to call the Sheriff's Office at (386) 313-4911.

"We are hoping someone may have seen the robber's direction of travel or may be familiar with the man and vehicle," said Flagler County Sheriff Donald W. Fleming.
