Two Juveniles Charged In Multiple Car Burglaries

Two Palm Coast juveniles have been charged with three felony burglaries of a vehicle in connection with multiple vehicle break-ins in the "L" section of Palm Coast over the weekend.

Early Sunday morning, deputies reported finding 15-year-old Justin Dalessandro, of 36 London Drive, and 17 year-old Eddie Wiley, of 4 Banner Lane, throwing electronic items into the wood line in the 70 block of London Drive.

Deputies said the teenagers were dressed all in black when they were stopped at 3:30 a.m.

The two are also charged with three felony counts of grand theft in connection with the vehicle break-ins that occurred overnight Saturday and are suspects in several others.

They were additionally charged with possession of burglary tools and grand theft. They were arrested and released to the custody of their parents.

"Juveniles should be at home at 3 a.m. – not out on the streets. These two teenagers are lucky that they weren't hurt while taking the property of someone else. Summer vacation is coming for our students and parents need to know where their children are in the coming months," said Flagler County Sheriff Donald W. Fleming.
